I bear all sorts of torture by keeping my mouth with a hope that one day the accused person will understand my pain and my matrimonial life will be blessed with peace and happiness. That our only son namely Shreyash Bhattacharya born on 21.05.2018 but even after the said event of happiness the accused person did not meant their ways and they continue all kind of mental and physical torture to me to make my life into a living hell.

On next day my parents rushed to my matrimonial home herein Madhepura and rescued me and my child and bring us to their home at Dalsingpara, Alipurduar. The cunning accused persons keep my all "Stridhan" property and essential documents and papers with them.

That thereafter I make several communication with accused no. 1 to bring me back at matrimonial home and on 14th July, 2021 accused no. 1 with accused no. 3 came to my present location at Alipurduar and again shout on me and threatened he will bring back me only if I comply his demand of dowry of Rs. 2,00,000/-, otherwise he will marry again by deserting me and minor child in our own fate.

Under such circumstances, I humbly prays that immediate necessary action may be taken against the accused persons for the interest of justice.
