Sir,

In producing herewith sized article one 18 wheeler truck bearing registration number plate HR-55/T-2786 loaded with 703 plastic bags of rice. I ASI Bholanath Pradhan of Hasimara Out Post under P.S: Jaigaon do here by lodge this complaint against the driver, owner of the vehicle and other to the effect that today i.e. on 22.09.2021 at 21:15 hrs during my mobile duty, received a source information that one vehicle is coming from Alipurduar side and heading towards Madarihat side through NH-31C that a huge quantity of rice is being illegally transported violating the norms. After taking permission from superiors my-self along with C/1026 Swaraj Kr. Mandol, C/783 Ananda Mandol, C/550 Sanjit Kumar Tiwary, CV/07 Amod Kr. Sahani, CV/56 Raja Ansari left to work out the information.

On 22.09.2021 at around 21:35 hrs we reached at Baniyajhora Bridge located on NH-31C and were waiting for the vehicle. At around 21:50 hrs being identified by the source we detained a 18 wheeler truck displaying number plate HR-55/T-2786. All of a sudden, the driver of the vehicle stopped the truck and fled away inside of the jungle. We made hot chase, but due to odd hour and density of the jungle we are unable to apprehend him.

Thereafter, on being searched 703 plastic packets of rice was found loaded on that truck and there is very reason to believe that the driver of the vehicle transporting the said rice without any valid transit pass/document/permit causing a revenue loss of Govt. of West Bengal. As such the accused driver was transporting the rice illegally and it is further reason to believe that without the indulgence of owner of the vehicle, the driver could not carry the rice in his vehicle and further the rice packets appeared to be accumulated by stolen means/fraudulently obtained.

I therefore pray before your good self a specific case may kindly be started U/S: 379/ 411 IPC against the driver, registered owner of the said vehicle and other and arrange for its investigation.

Yours' faithfully,

(ASI Bholanath Pradhan)
