Respected Sir,

This is for your kind information doing necessary and expending action relating to the matter stated as follows:-

1. That I belonging to Schedule Tribe Community person and I am residing at the above noted address.

2. That on 05.02.2021 at about 6.30 P.M. when I returning to my house with my motor bike , I reached at near Mangalhat Bazar, Uttar Shibkhata, Samuktala then the above named accused persons were obstruct my way and forcefully pull down me from the motor bike and asked me that " why my motor bike roar a loud sound" I inform them the silencer of my Motor Bike has been broken and I have to repair the same and I also inform them that to repair my said motor bike I will go to Alipurduar within a very short period of time. But the above named accused persons were threatened with me dire consequences although I make pardon to them to give me some time for repair my motor bike but the above named accused persons were become furious most of them were in drunken condition they did not pay any heed to my request, they assault me with fist and blows and due to their assault I sustained grievous bleeding injuries not only that the above named accused persons were forcefully snatch away a sum of Rs. 3,440/- from my pocket and forcefully kept my motor bike in their possession.
3. Thereafter I inform the whole matter over telephone to my family members and then and there my family members and other relatives were reached to the spot and somehow they rescue myself and my motor bike from the clutches of the above named accused person, thereafter they treated me at Jasodanga Block Hospital.
4. That I inform the whole matter to the local respectable persons of the locality and they give assurance to minimized the matter but no fruit full result yet been came out rather the above named accused persons were still threatening me and my other family members that " if I inform the matter to the local P.S. or take any kind of legal shelter then they shall murder me and my other family members" due to act of the above named accused persons my life and my other member's life is in danger.
5. That due to assault by the above named accused person I become physically and mentally ill hence this delay for filling the instant complaint.
6. That the complaint is drafted as per my instruction and after gone through the contented of this complaint I put my signature on the same.

In the above circumstance, I request before Your Honour to take appropriate steps and legal proceedings against the accused person to give due justice as per provision of the said act and rules.

Yours faithfully
