Handwritten text in a non-Latin script, likely a letter or official document, covering the majority of the page. The text is written in a cursive style and appears to be in a South Asian script, possibly Odia or a related dialect. It is organized into several paragraphs, with some lines indented. The handwriting is somewhat faded and difficult to decipher precisely, but it seems to contain a formal communication, possibly a report or a letter from a police station as indicated by the header.
