Dear Sir,

Further to our letter dated 02.03.2021 wherein the difficulties faced by the Management in operating at Joteswar Division of this Tea Estate, pursuant to the reopening of the Garden, was detailed for your kind information

Now, it may please be noted that a Committee comprising of some misguided persons led by Shri Sarwan, Shri. Mahadeo, Shri.Sunil Thakur, Shri.Parmeswar, Sri. Ramu, Shri. Fazar Munda, Shri. Dinesh Sharma, Shri. Bishal Munda and Shri. Avijit Oraon, who were earlier illegally running Joteswar Division of this Tea Garden, are inciting the workers of the Division and by adopting coercive tactics are restricting the workers from adhering to the instructions of the Management.

It has further come to the knowledge of the undersigned that the aforementioned persons have now unlawfully started operating at the Division on their own whims and dictates by completely disregarding this Management as also the clauses and essence of the Agreement so reached at the Office of the Addl. Labour Commissioner, NB Zone, Siliguri on 12/02/2021.

It may be mentioned that as per aforesaid agreement, Management had paid 50% of the earlier due wages to both the Divisions and if normalcy is restored, the same will also be paid to the workers of Joteswar Division immediately.

The above is for your information and kind intervention in a manner as deemed appropriate so that the constant disruption in the working of the Estate can be addressed and peace and tranquility of the Estate can be restored enabling this Management to operate seamlessly.

Yours faithfully,

Manager
