On shouting for help the above named witnesses rushed to the spot and rescued the complainant from the clutches of the accused persons.

4. That subsequently the complainant was taken to Falakata Super Speciality Hospital on 29/01/2021 where she was treated.
5. That thereafter the complainant lodged an FIR on the same date with the Falakata Police Station stating inter alia all the facts which happened to her. But the police concern did not take any step against the accused persons who are influential in the locality both in respect of monitory matter and political power. Hence the delay of filing this petition of complaint.
6. That the above named witnesses will prove the case of complaint.
7. That the above named accused persons have committed the aforesaid offences and so they are liable to be punished as per law.

Accordingly, it is prayed, that considering the above circumstances your honour may kind enough to pass an order U/S 156(3)Cr.P.C to send this complaint before I/C Falakata P.S., directing him to register the case and to start investigation and to treat the said complainant as F.I.R.

Or
