 Number, if any Of Samuktala PS

I SI. Deepankar Saha, Officer-in-charge of Samuktala PS do hereby lodge this suo-motu written complaint against 1) Bhim Oroan (32) yrs. S/O Sukra Oroan of Kohinoor T.G., PS Samuktala Dist: Alipurduar, 2) Sanicharwa Oroan (38) S/O Mahadeb Oroan of Do 3) Nabin Tudu (21) yrs. S/O Provat Tudu of Baniagoan, PS Samuktala Dist: Alipurduar 4) Nazrul Ansari (38) yrs. S/O Mobarak Ansari of Samuktala Bazar, PS Samuktala Dist: Alipurduar and 5) Ankur Sarkar of Kohinoor T.G. and 200/250 others. Today on 11.07.2021, at about 20:15 hrs, around 200/250 persons arrived at PS compound and identified themselves from Kohinoor T.G. and started slogans against the police that why police have arrested their tea garden owner and demanded to release him immediately. However, the owner of Kohinoor Tea garden Sri. Om Prakash Upadhyay was wanted in C/W Samuktala PS Case No. 97/21 dt: 18.05.2021 U/S 143/186/353/188 IPC R/W Section 3, PD PP act R/W Section 51(b) D.M. Act. As he was evading the police arrest since after the initiation of this case, so today he has been arrested from Tetultala, Uttar Parokata in C/W this case. Further I along with other officers and force had tried our label best to convince the crowd about the matter but they did not responded to our call and continued their unhealthy activities like threatening the police personnel and lady CVF on duty with dire consequences as well as misbehaved with them. Further on arrival of SDPO Alipurduar, few people from the said mob was called inside to talk with a view to settle the matter. However, when the officials and representatives talk was going on, at around 9:35 pm, the mob standing outside the PS compound became violent and demanded to enter into the PS with a view to snatch away the arrested person. As the mob was violent, they had been restricted to enter into PS building as there is two more remand accused in PS lockup and it was assumed that if the mob was allowed inside, there was chances of endanger to life of other accused detained in PS lockup as well as vandalization of PS property including arms and ammunition kept at PS. Finding no other alternative, a mild lathi charge was started with a view to disperse the violent mob after making necessary cautions, but the agitated mob started pelting of stones targeting PS building as well as police personal on duty causing serious damage of PS property and some of the on-duty personnel was also injured. So, further having no other alternative to control the violent mob, we used 1 round of tear smoke cell and 1 round of gas stun cell to disperse the mob. Later, the accused persons namely 1) Bhim Oroan, 2) Sanicharwa Oroan 3) Nabin Tudu & 4) Nazrul Ansari have been apprehended who were leading the mob and took them in custody.

On searching their persons, one patang was seized from the possession of accused Bhim Oroan and one catapult from the possession of accused Sanicharwa Oroan. On further search of PO and its surrounding areas, seized following articles viz. 1) Good quantity of stones in different shapes and size, 2) 21 numbers of raw bamboo lathi 3) Broken pieces of glass have also been seized. It is to note that due to pelting of stones by the agitated mob wind glass of PS building and Govt. vehicle bearing No. WB-04-B-8475 got damaged. Accordingly, by using minimum force the mob could be dispersed and finally we were able to control the situation. The injured police personnel have been arranged for necessary treatment. It is further learnt that one Ankur Sarkar garden staff of Kohinoor T.G. and others instigated the garden labours to come to Samuktala Police station and snatch away arrested owner Om Prakash Upadhyay from police custody.

Under the above circumstances I hereby register Samuktala PS case no. 128/21 dtd 11.07.2021 U/S 143/147/148/186/353/188 IPC R/W Section 3 PDPP act R/W Section 51(b) D.M. Act. and endorsed to SI. Partho Barman for its investigation.
