- It was an arrange marriage, before marrying the mother (Sita Devi Pariyar) of Mukesh Pariyar and his relatives had told to our family that his son is so simple, hard working, and has not touched cigarettes, alcohol nor seen consumed till date. He works in Orrisa in hotel, he gets handsome monthly salary. Even they assured us by saying if, anything goes wrong in near future (after marriage) we shall take the risk and will not spare him of his ill treatment towards you (me) so hearing this entire proposal we accepted the relation.

- Finally we tied knots in the 2016 Friday 9th December the marriage was solemnized under the hindu marriage act 1955 but after marriage I came to know that he consumes alcohol. As I was newly married. I was unknown about the characters of neither his entire family nor him. Now they began to torture me. I tried my level best to make them happy from my side but they never understood my feeling Instead of understanding my feeling they began to torture me more than before by physically, mentally and offensive language
- My husband (Mukesh Pariyar Darjee) used to come home late night in drunken condition and used to beat me mercilessly with offensive language. Sometimes he used put naked weapon on my neck. It was his daily routing. One day he hit me by weapon but somehow I could save my life.
- Sita Devi Pariyar (mother of Mukesh Pariyar) Rajani Pariyar, Reshma Pariyar (Sister of Mukesh Pariyar) used to blame that all the household items I take to my parental home. And what dowry has given from your (my parental home) home and tried to kill me by entire family members.
- On dated 27.11.17 Monday night time around 11.00 PM I was beaten so mercilessly like an animal with hand punch foot, and leather belt, kicked me so hard like playing as football. I became unconscious but he felt no mercy towards me. None of their family members came forward to save nor support me and my so called husband tried to kill me but this time also I tried to save my life somehow. He used to thread me always by saying what can do your family to me, they are beggar, powerless, I shall teach them lesson now.
- On march, 2018, my husband (Mukesh Pariyar) went to Orissa, as he works there. I was stayed with his family but they started the same thing, which they used to do before and desecrated. It was so terrible situation there but I tried my level best to handle with situation.
- I have been residing with my parental home with permission of my mother in-law (Sita Devi Pariyar) since from mid of 2018 but my husband has not sent me a single penny so far. I am so sick that I have could not take proper medical treatment till date.

- I have come to know recently from outsider that my husband has arrived from Orissa to Bich bagan (His home) a week ago i.e 1st week of June 2021 but he has not made any calls to me nor came to my parental home to see me. I made many calls but he ignores my calls not does not receive my call.
- I have Come to know today 11.06.21 my husband has fled with another girl (name Jina Darjee inhabitant of Dalsingpara)

Sir, as we all are aware that our India country is a democracy country. It has own constitution and we all are following its law and order. We also know that humiliation, torturing in physically, mentally, harassing , dowry towards any helpless women does not accept by our law and order system in our country nor spare to accused person those who tortures like this.

I am helpless and victimized woman; I have no other option rather than to approaching your good administration office for justice under IPC ACT law and order of my above mention plea on humanitarian ground.

Yours faithfully,

Bishna Sewa .
