(Sub: FIR for complaint for not paying dues, mistreatment, dishonesty)

Respected Ma'am/Sir

I, Norkhil Dolma Lama, d/o Late Prabin Lama, resident of Hanuman Mandir Road, Jaigaon, District - Alipurduar, West Bengal, India, Buddhist by religion would like to lodge a complaint against Tashi Thundup, s/o Late Sangmu Tshering, resident of Lama Building, Opposite Jaigaon Police Station, Jaigaon, District - Alipurduar, West Bengal, India, Buddhist by religion who is my legally married husband. The marriage certificate SL No. 116/2018 registered Alipurduar, West Bengal, dated 05/10/2018.

The grounds of this complaint being mistreatment, dishonesty, cheating, fraud, deception, manipulation and threat to me and my family's safety.

Before the marriage, in the few months that i knew him, he projected himself as a good natured person. He asked my hand in marriage and his mother also persuaded me to accept his proposal of marriage which I accepted as he convinced me that he would be a good partner and husband as everything seemed well at that point of time.

After the marriage, I slowly began realizing that I had been deceived and lied to when I started being mistreated. Living with him as a wife, I soon discovered that he had a strong habit of substance abuse. Then he made no effort to conceal this fact anymore and he behaved in an irrational, irresponsible, aggressive and abusive manner mostly. I started suffering mental, emotional and physical abuse from him. He used to break my phones, my personal possessions and other things in a fit of rage. He even physically assaulted me at times and I began fearing for my personal safety. He made threats to harm my family in case I told my family or anyone else about this. He even made me ask for money on many occasions from my family citing various reasons which I could not deny since I was living in fear. In the apartment we lived in Siliguri, at times he would invite strangers to the house saying they were friends which made me very uncomfortable and I feared for my safety at times. My fear was even more aggravated when I further learnt that he has a history of criminal proceedings in the court which makes him quite capable of harm. All of this he had never confessed before the marriage or brought to my knowledge by him or his family. After a few months of marriage, I was building my resolve and confidence to leave him, this is when his mother got terminally ill in Jaigaon and was brought to Siliguri to be hospitalized. So I put a hold on my decision to file a complaint as she required immediate attention and it would not be the right time to complicate things. After his mother passed away, he physically abused me to a point where he chased me away and I had to run leaving everything behind just to save myself. This was in October 2019. For months I distanced myself fearing his rage, blaming myself for this mistake, and finally he convinced me to settle on a mutual divorce where he promised to return my belongings, my jewelry that my family had given me at the time of marriage and the money which he had made me ask my family. He also guaranteed that he would clear my name from any loans or liabilities from finance companies or any other parties and assured me that I would not be liable for any loans or advances taken by him. Also, it was agreed that he would leave me in peace and would not seek to cause any harm or damage in any form towards me or my family. Based on these commitments, I had agreed to seek a mutual divorce for which we had filed a petition in November 2020. The hearing which is due next month.

He bought a car in finance in the month of June 2019, a Honda CRV registered under the no. WB-74-AY-2846 which he enjoys the possession till today. The loan is with Sundaram Finance Limited, Loan No. - P020700083, Contract date - 10/06/2021. On this I have received a letter from the finance company recently stating that he has not paid the loan amount outstanding to a sum of Rs 2295089.8 as on the 8th July 2021. On this he made me sign as a guarantor under pressure being his wife as there was no one else to volunteer. He has the car in his possession from the time of purchase till today. His intentions of not clearing this loan may put me into problems for which I seek to reach the law for a resolution. I have made several attempts to communicate this concern with him. Every time I make an attempt to resolve this matter, a woman who allegedly claims to be his wife is rude towards me and he too chooses to ignore the matter but instead throws abuses and threats with no resolution from him. Just a few days ago when I again tried to ask him to contact the finance company and pay his dues regarding the vehicle, he chose to hurl abuses and even threatened to cause harm if I kept insisting on the matter.

The commitments he had made to return my money, jewelry and possessions have not been met till date. Now even the liabilities that he has taken from the market are coming to haunt me. I fear that all these issues will put me in a financial catastrophe and ruin my life. Every effort I make to discuss with him of the commitments are responded with threats and abuses. There have been instances when he stops me in the middle of the road, behaves in an inappropriate manner, displays a threatening attitude and also hurls abuses just because it pleases him. On a personal front, he never allowed me the liberty to work and build a career at that time since he absolutely refrained me from my individual liberty. Also, now I am not in very supportive terms from my family since he has severely damaged my relationship with the family. All these result in the extent of damage he has caused towards me physically, mentally and emotionally. Now his actions and stand furthermore indicates that I may be in financial and legal problems in addition to my sufferings till date and I even feel threatened for my safety in future, him being a substance abuser with an aggressive nature.

Even after dedicated efforts from my end to resolve this issue peacefully, his unchanged threatening attitude and other circumstances he has presented leaves me with no choice but to trust the law and seek justice to my plea.

Yours Sincerely,

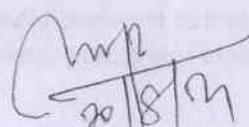

(NORKHIL DOLMA LAMA)
