I, Smt. Gargi Biswas(Basu), W/O Shiv Shambhu Biswas, D/O Sri. Shyamal Basu, R/O Jyotish Kar More, Institute colony, Nirmal Paul Lane, P.O Alipurduar Inc. P.S & Dist. Alipurduar, PIN 736123, do hereby lodge this complaint before you to the effect that:

I was married to Sri Shiv Sambhu Biswas on 27.02.2015 after observing Hindu rites and rituals from my parental home at Qtr no. 565/A, Aurobinda colony, Alipurduar Inc. and at the time of marriage my father spent a handsome amount on ornaments, dresses, brass and bell metal utensils, furniture and Rupees 40,000/- towards "Borjatri" hospitality as per demands of my husband and in laws.

After marriage I started my conjugal life somewhat peacefully but just before birth of my daughter Shivangi Biswas my husband and in laws started oppressing me and mentally tortured me anytime and misbehaved with me in public and in front of neighbours and relatives. They even misbehaved with me and my parents at Alipurduar junction. Despite being an optometrist and having a sound business my husband and in-laws conspired against me and treated me with cruelty.

Day after day they ignored and kept me without proper food and care. My husband ignored me and kept me away from my daughter who is now only 5 years old. The accused persons also threatened to harm me and my daughter many times stating "mor mor, morcheo na, poth o chharchhe na": all these events made me sick and I felt like killing myself. During the COVID-19 pandemic I had light fever and on 28/03/2020 the accused persons called my father suspecting that I had Covid. My father brought me and my daughter to Alipurduar and got me treated. My in-laws told my parents to keep us for some more time and said that "apnar meye pagol...daktar dekhan".

In August 2021, suddenly I received a call from CWC Coochbehar mentioning that my husband placed a complaint before them, and both parties were called for reconciliation. Before the hearing my husband swore on my daughter and prevented me from speaking. I pleaded for my child's custody, but failed. My husband and in-laws abused me after I entered my matrimonial home and started physically and mentally torturing me and I fell sick. They never treated me and said that treatment expenses had been deposited in bank account and I should go to my parent's house for treatment. On 11.10.2021 I took my father in law's permission and came for my treatment at Alipurduar. They refused to allow my daughter to come with me. Again on 26.10.2021 when I went back to Birpara my husband and in-laws used abusive words towards me in front of neighbours and my minor daughter. I raised objection but they insulted me and locked the house on my face, driving me out in single apparel. My husband lied before CWC and cheated on me by taking custody of my daughter. My daughter is unsafe without me. My husband has also blocked my mobile number and I have lost all communication with my daughter. I have the intuition the accused persons my harm my daughter as my husband is trying to remarry and my in laws are already searching for a suitable match for my husband.

My daughter is insecure in my husband's custody at Birpara and under the above circumstances I pray that a stern action be taken to punish the accused persons and ~~hand over custody of my daughter to me.~~ Gargi Biswas (Basu)

Thanking you

Yours Faithfully,

Gargi Biswas (Basu)
