The Inspector-In-Charge,
Birpara Police Station,
PO. Birpara.

Sir,

F.I.R

I write to report to your good self that on 19.05.2022 at around 7.30 AM, while Shri Goutam Ghosh, Sr. Assistant Manager was allocating chemical indents to the spraying Sardar at his Office, one Shri Lakhiram Baraik, son of Shri Mantu Baraik of Lower Division Bara line forcibly barged into his Office with a bamboo stick on his hand as also might be carrying some other lethal weapons and without any provocation or discussion whatsoever, suddenly attacked Shri Ghosh with the stick causing severe bodily injuries on his neck/hand when he could manage to bent down and save his head.

The situation could have been turned to fatal, if the other persons present around the spot viz Shri Abraham Mangar, Sardar, Shri Kailash Chhetri Driver, Shri Ramdas Oraon, Office Peon, Mr. Mukesh Ojha, Assistant Manager, Mr. Sonu Yadav, Assistant Manager and other workers present nearby had not intervened on time to stop the miscreant and ultimately Shri Ghosh was saved from further injuries.

You are well aware that this Garden had a record of taking law in their own hands and few years back, there was an unfortunate incident of brutal killing of an Executive by one worker and his family members.

The entire incident had caused a sense of fear in the minds of the Executives residing on the Garden with their family members.

You will surely appreciate that if such kind of heinous and unfortunate incident will not be curbed, this type of miscreants will be emboldened and it will be very difficult to run the Garden in a meaningful manner under such atmosphere of threat, coercion, intimidation and exposure to personal safety and security.
