Sub : FIR for the theft of Tyre and Disc.

Respected Sir,

With reference to above , I Harmeshwar Singh Birdi, S/o Late T.S. Birdi, residence of S.C. Colony, Birpara, want to register FIR for the theft occurred in my fabrication workshop M/S Virdi Engineering, located at N.H. 31C, Gaikata road, P.O. + P.S. – Birpara. One of the Tata Signa (new) Chassis truck of Bhutan customer had came for the fabrication in our workshop on 21/10/20. Due to lock down in Bhutan, the customer has not taken the delivery of truck from our workshop, as such the truck was parked inside our workshop and with closed gates of our workshop.

Last night of 26/01/2021 and in morning of 27/01/2021, most miscreants have broke open the gates of our workshop and entered the workshop and open the brand new (10 pes) tyres along with disc of new Tata Signa Truck of Bhutan customer. They have taken all the ten (10pes) tyres along with fitted disc , carried away in small vehicle parked outside. The total cost of the tyres and disc is around Rs. 3,00,000/- (Rupees Three Lac only)

Also, I would like to mention you that, similar incident has happened in the area of Telipara Checkpost , in front of Kali Mandir, Sakojhora area of N.H. 31 C, Gaikata road, Banarhat P.S.. In this incident the miscreants have opened and took away 04 pes (four) brand new tyre along with disc of a truck parked in front of Kalimandir. This proves that this incident is done by organised criminal, and it poses a threat to our society.

I would like to request you, kindly please register our FIR, and take necessary action for the recovery of Tyres and Disc of the said truck. It is a matter of reputation of our workshop as such incident has happened in my workshop, as in near future my entire business with the Bhutan customer will be lost. As such I request your department to look into the matter and immediate action.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Harmeshwar Singh Birdi, (Babla)
Virdi Engineering
(Proprietor).
